

THE
DUKE OF CORNWALL
HOTEL

In the heart of Plymouth City Centre, The Duke of Cornwall is within walking distance of the historic waterfront and the Theatre Royal. It is an imposing Victorian hotel, with 72 individually designed rooms, 24 hour room service and an informal award-winning restaurant.

The hotel provides extremely versatile event facilities and specialises in residential conferences. Experienced, professional staff, who understand the demands of today's busy event organisers, supervise each event to ensure it runs smoothly and meets expectations.

The Duke of Cornwall has seven unique function rooms and is pleased to cater a range of different activities. These might range from one-to-one interviews, training seminars and video conferences, to prestigious private celebration dinners, dinner dances for 280 guests or conferences for up to 300 delegates. The Ballroom, which is the largest individual venue, has a stage, with an optional bar and air conditioning.

All the function rooms have been recently refurbished and the hotel can offer a full range of presentation equipment including projectors, televisions, audio, video, video conferencing and phase power together with up-to-date communication systems with internet access in each of the bedrooms.

The Duke of Cornwall can provide free parking for up to 50 vehicles.
