

KITLEY HOUSE
—Hotel & Restaurant—

Kitley House Hotel is only 15 minutes by car from Plymouth city centre in the small village of Yealmpton, and stands amidst South Devon's beautiful rolling countryside with views across the lake. At the end of long private drive, the hotel is very secluded and stands within extensive private grounds of around 600 acres. The peace and tranquillity of this historic house ensure that meetings are both effective and uninterrupted and it is now well recognised as a leading conference & training centre.

Kitley House Hotel is very popular for away days, team building events, meeting days and corporate activity days, which may also utilise the gardens and grounds. It also provides a quiet sanctuary for residential meetings, combining the luxury and comfort of a country house hotel including fine cuisine and private dining rooms, with first class meeting and conference facilities. Kitley House Hotel is also an excellent venue for board meetings and other sensitive events.

The hotel has 19 spacious en-suite rooms including 7 delux State Rooms, it has gained an excellent reputation for its service, with friendly well-trained staff. It has a flexible approach to meet your requirements with a range of packages. Room hire include screens, flipcharts, stationery, unlimited mineral water, fruit squashes and mints. There is ample free parking, and the hotel is within easy reach of the major regional transport routes.
